Rooted in place, slipping between worlds - a rich collection of unnerving ghosts and sinister histories.

Eight authors were given after hours freedom at their chosen English heritage site. Immersed in the history, atmosphere and rumours of hauntings, they channelled their darker imaginings into a series of extraordinary new ghost stories.

Sarah Perry's intense tale of possession at the Jacobean country house Audley End is a work of psychological terror, while Andrew Michael Hurley's story brings an unforgettably shocking slant to the history of Carlisle Castle. Within the walls of these historic buildings each author has found inspiration to deliver a new interpretation of the classic ghost story.

Eight Ghosts: The English Heritage Book of New Ghost ... Eight newly commissioned ghost stories set in English heritage properties. They are something of a mixed bag. Those by Sarah Perry (They Flee from me that Sometime Did Me Seek) and Andrew Michael Hurley (Mr Lanyard's Last Case) succeed in imparting what M. R. James described as the key to a good ghost story, that is 'a pleasing terror. Eight Ghosts: The English Heritage Book of Ghost Stories ...
